

ORGANIC CERTIFICATION COST-SHARE PROGRAM APPLICATION

The Organic Certification Cost-Share Program is designed to provide assistance to organic producers, processors, handlers, and retailers who receive and/or update their organic certification between October 1, 2008 and September 30, 2009. Cost-Share payments will be limited to 75 percent of an individual operation's certification costs, up to a maximum of $750.00 per certification. Applications must be received no later than June 30, 2010 to obtain certification reimbursements for October 1, 2008 to September 30, 2009 period.

Only producers, processors, handler and retailers within Washington State are eligible to receive cost-share money from the Washington State Department of Agriculture (WSDA). If your certified farm or facility is located in a state outside of Washington State, you must contact your state department of agriculture for a cost-share application.
